

King Saul did not like David. He wanted to hurt him.

One day, Saul went into a cave. He did not see David and his friends hiding in the cave.

David's friends wanted him to hurt Saul, but David cut off a piece of Saul's clothing instead.

When Saul left the cave, David talked to him. David said, “I could have hurt you, but I didn’t.”

Saul said, “You are better than me. I know you will be the next king of Israel.” Then Saul and David went to their homes.
