

Jesus sent two of His disciples to a village. Jesus said, “Go find a donkey and her colt. Bring them to Me.”

The disciples did what Jesus said. They put their robes on the donkey and the colt, and Jesus sat on them.

As Jesus got close to Jerusalem, lots of people walked behind Him and in front of Him. They laid palm branches and their robes on the road. The people shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David!”

The religious leaders told Jesus to make His disciples be quiet. “If they were quiet,” Jesus said, “the rocks would praise Me!”

The religious leaders at the temple heard children shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” The children were saying, “The king is here!”
