

Jesus sent two of His disciples, Peter and John, into Jerusalem to get the Passover meal ready.

When the meal was ready, Jesus and His disciples sat around the table to eat. Jesus knew it was almost time to die on the cross, rise again, and go back to His Father in heaven.

While they ate, Jesus took the bread, broke it into pieces and gave it to His disciples. He said, “Eat this. This bread is like My body that will be broken for you. Do this to remember Me.”

Then He took the cup, thanked God for it, and gave it to His disciples. “Drink this,” Jesus said, “This drink is like My blood. My blood makes the new covenant.”
