

Jesus' friends were together in a house when they heard a loud sound like a strong rushing wind. The sound came from heaven and filled the house.

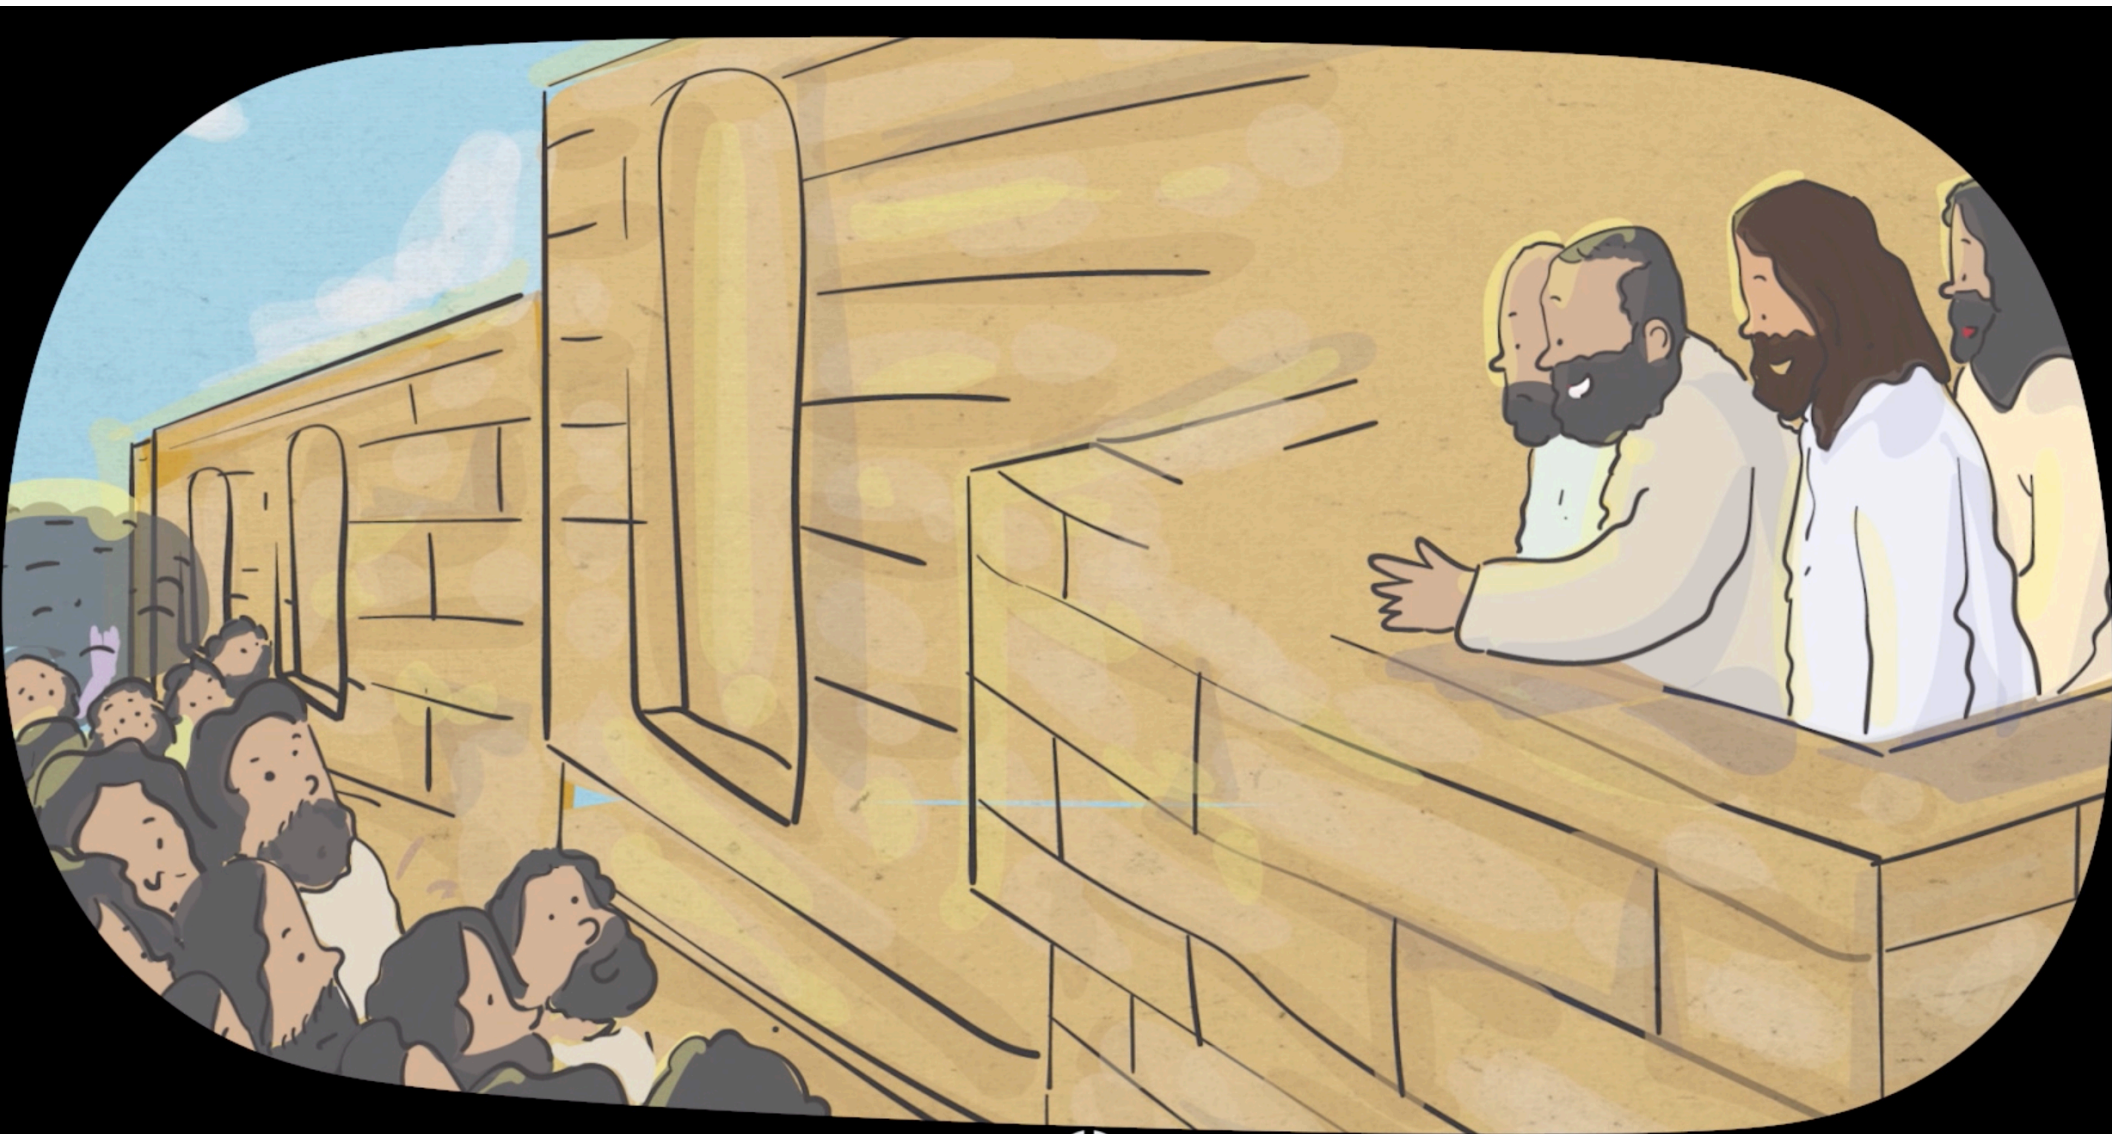

The Holy Spirit had come from God and filled Jesus' followers. Then Jesus' friends began to speak in different languages, telling about the wonderful things God had done.

Other people came to see what was happening, and they were surprised! They could understand what Jesus' friends were saying in their own languages.

Some people thought something was wrong with Jesus' friends.
