

God's people had a special place to meet with God called the tabernacle. One day a year, on the Day of Atonement, the high priest, Aaron, talked to God for all the people.

Aaron put on special clothes. He took one goat and said sorry to God for the wrong things the people had done. Then he sent another goat far away to show that God had taken away their sins.

God gave the people rules to follow to show them what was right and wrong. God promised good things if they followed His rules, but He knew they would not always obey.

ABRAHAM, ISAAC, AND JACOB

God said there would be tough times, but He wouldn't leave them. He would remember His promise to bless them and to be their God forever.
