

The King is on the Move [D]

[w/ All Hail King Jesus Ch.] by Katie Rios, Brian Buffon, Dominic Balli

VERSE 1

I can see fear give way to love As every chain chain turns into dust
I can see the broken lifted up The King is on the move
I can see dead hearts come to life As a valley of dry bones starts to rise
I can see an army clothed in white The King is on the move

CHORUS

He's mov - ing He's always been mov - ing
Right now He's mov - ing And He won't stop

POST CHORUS

The King is on the move (oh oh oh oh) The King is on the move (oh oh oh oh)

VERSE 2

I can see kings and kingdoms bow As sinners and saints give up their crowns
I can hear the people crying out "The King is on the move"
I can see the gates of hell fall down I can hear the roar of heaven's sound
I can see His glory coming now The King is on the move
